Dear Mr. Long,

I received your letter dated February 28, 2018 in which you enclosed personal documentation pertaining to an account you believe you have and concerns regarding Chapter 7 Trustee Dershaw's accounting. I must remind you that your bankruptcy case has been closed since December 2017, which means I no longer have jurisdiction over the matter and cannot take any action in response to your letter. Moreover, as a Bankruptcy Judge, I am prohibited from providing any legal advice.

Given the nature of the materials you sent, I am returning them to you with this letter. I am also refraining from posting your letter on the docket. I can appreciate your desire to seek guidance over any outstanding questions you may have in connection with your bankruptcy case. I recommend speaking with an attorney.

Please refrain from sending future correspondence to me or my Chambers concerning this matter or your closed bankruptcy case.

Very truly yours,

Eric L. Frank
U.S. Bankruptcy Judge
